

Instructions for using the charging control module

1. Please lock the charging control module with screws or welding as shown in the picture

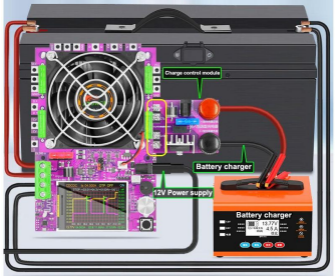

2. There are two modes to connect the charger (DC5.5 charger or wired charger)

3. Connect the battery and adjust to CDC mode

Attention:
The charging current is controlled by the charger device and displays the charger's current. This setting represents the discharge current, not the charging current.

Connection mode of charger

Connection diagram of charging and discharging rechargeable battery

